

ACST RESEARCHERS' DAY:

COMMUNITY-BASED WORK IN ATLANTIC CANADA

THE UNILEVER LOUNGE, SOBEY BUILDING, SB 415

MARCH 18, 2022 | FRIDAY | 9 AM - 4 PM AST

OR ON ZOOM

Saint Mary's
University

GORSEBROOK
RESEARCH INSTITUTE

PROGRAM

9:00 AM: OPENING REMARKS

BY JOHANNA COLE

9:15 AM: ACST GRADUATE STUDENTS

MODERATOR: MATHIAS RODORFF

Daniel MacGregor

Adapting to Being Beautiful: Dependency, and Displacement in the Cape Breton Tourism Industry

Brady Paul

Skicinuwiq (ski-jin-u-wee-qa): Complexity of Indigenous Community Based Work

Liz Michels

Places, People, and Patterns: Geophysics and Site Identification of Black Loyalist Settlements

Adeena Fox

Landscape, Memory and the Poor: How Communities Remember the Poor Houses in Nova Scotia

10:45 AM: COFFEE BREAK

11:00 AM: ACADEMIC RESEARCH

MODERATOR: MICHELLE MACRAE

Dr. Katie Cottreau-Robins

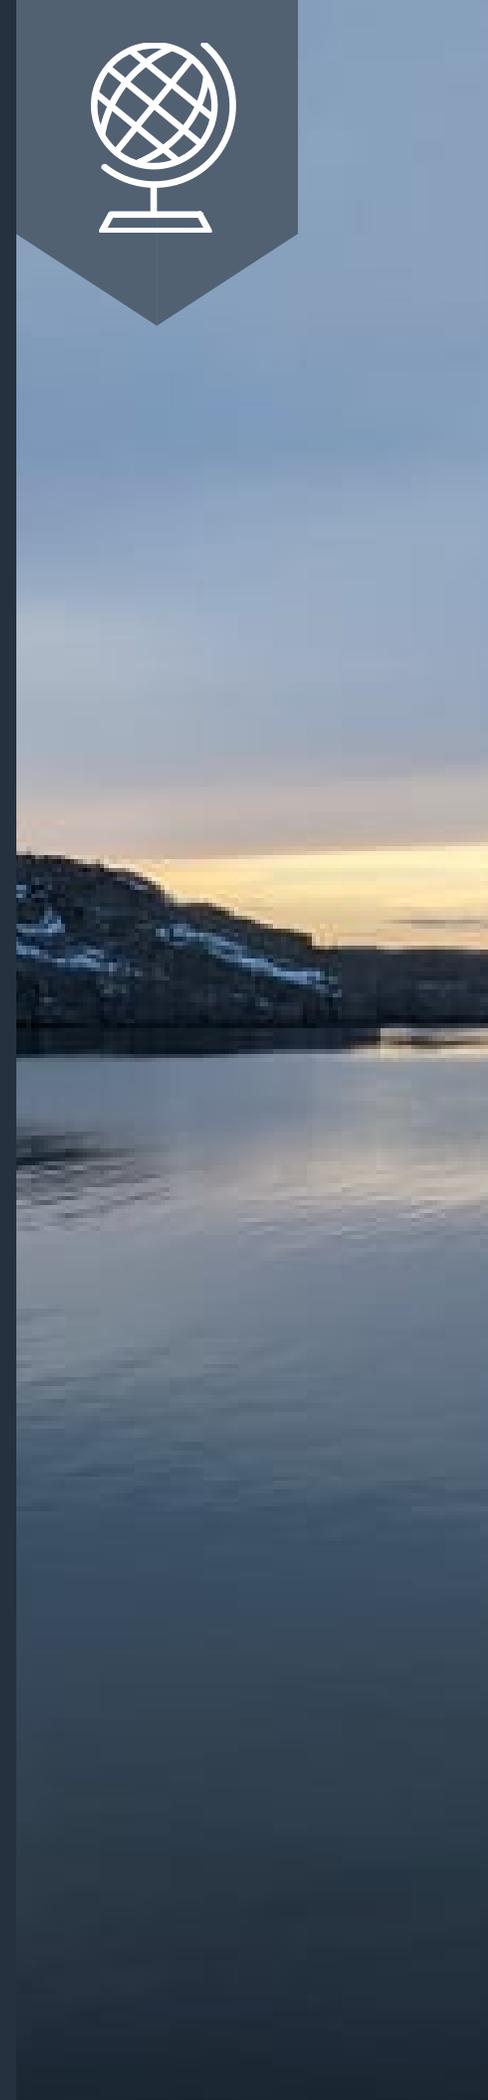

Culture and Heritage Community Work: Experiences and Reflections

Dr. Scott Neilsen

Community-based Archaeology and Cultural Resources Management in Sheshatshiu, Labrador

Dr. Sara Spike

Coastal Stories: The Eastern Shore Islands Heritage Research Project

PROGRAM

12:30 PM - LUNCH BREAK

1:00 PM - COMMUNITY RESEARCHERS

MODERATOR: MATHIAS RODORFF

Michelle MacRae

A Living Archive: The Barns of Kingsburg

Robyn Lacy and Ian Petty

Cemetery Conservation in Newfoundland: Working with Communities in Heritage

Sara Beanlands

Building Capacity and Cultural Connection in Archaeology

Roger Lewis

Pjila'si-New NS Museum Mi'kmaq Exhibit

2:30 PM - COFFEE BREAK

2:45 PM - ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

MODERATOR: DR. KEITH MERCER

Dr. Katie Cottreau-Robins

Sara Beanlands

Dr. Sara Spike

Dr. Scott Neilson

3:45 PM - CLOSING REMARKS

BY JOHANNA COLE

