

Family Sponsored Spouses do Well in Nova Scotia

67%

For those landing between 2010-2012, 67% of Family Sponsored Spouses and Partners are employed

57%

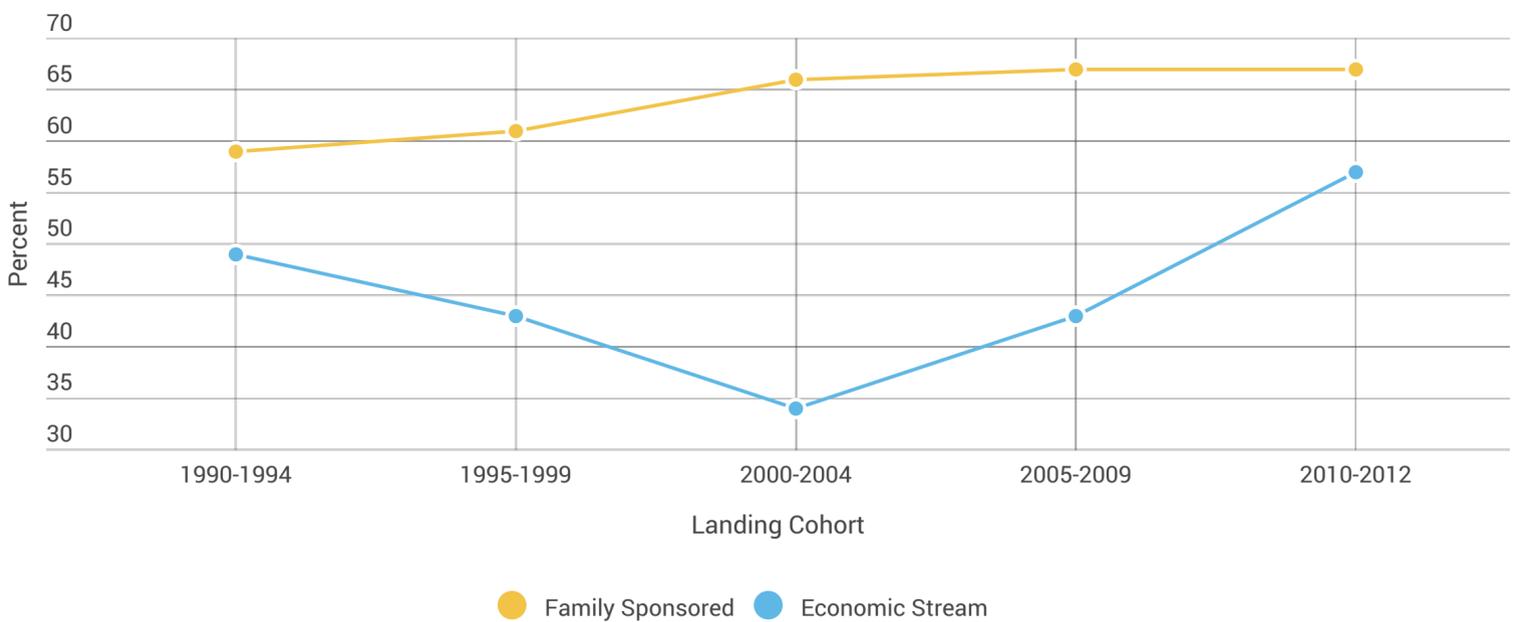

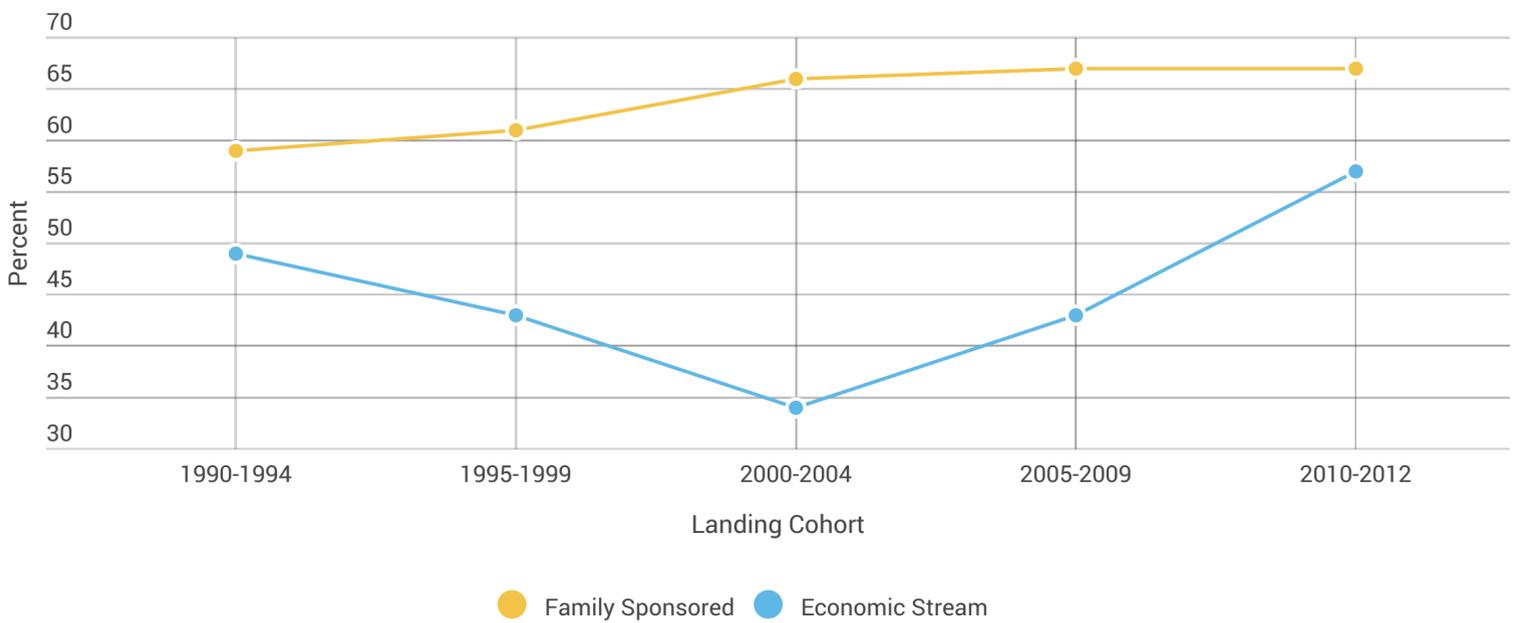

For those landing between 2010-2012, 57% of Economic Stream Spouses and Partners are employed

In Nova Scotia family sponsored spouses and partners fare better than spouses and partners coming under the economic stream

Based on analysis of Longitudinal Immigration Database

Percentage of Spouses and Partners to Nova Scotia Employed One Year After Arrival

Family Sponsored Spouses and Partners to Nova Scotia earn More than Economic Stream Spouses and Partners

Based on analysis of Longitudinal Immigration Database

26,000

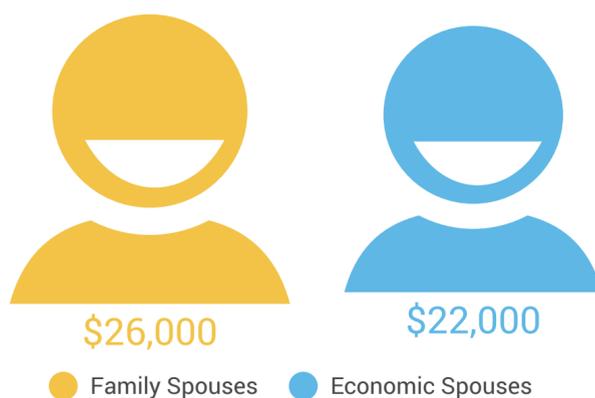

Average earnings one year after arrival for Family Sponsored Spouses and Partners to Nova Scotia, landing between 2010-2012

22,000

Average earnings one year after arrival for Economic Stream Spouses and Partners to Nova Scotia, landing between 2010-2012

Average Earnings for Immigrants to Nova Scotia one year after arrival, 2010-2012

Full report available at: www.isans.ca