

Below is a list of courses in the Prince Edward Island high school curriculum which Saint Mary's University will consider for purposes of admission. If a course is not listed and you would like to find out whether or not we will accept it for admission purposes, please contact recruitment@smu.ca.

Note: Students must meet all admission criteria as outlined in our viewbook and at smu.ca/futurestudents.

Accounting Principles 621	Independent Study Courses 621A
Advanced Chemistry 611	Introductory Economics/Economics 621
Advanced Political Studies 621A	Law 621
Agriscience 621	Music 621A/B/C
Animal Science 621	Oceanography 621A
Biology 621	PEI History 621B
Botany 621	Physical Education: Leadership 621A
Business Organization & Management 621	Physics 621A
Calculus 611B	Pre-Calculus 12 621B
Canadian History 621A	Psychology 621
Chemistry 621	Royal Conservatory of Music 621T
Computer Studies 621	Spanish 621
Conservatory Canada Music 621	The Individual in Society 621F
Cooperative Education 601A or 602A/B	Visual Arts 621
Dramatic Arts 621A	Open Courses (limit of one considered)
English 611 or 621	Accounting 801A
Environmental Science 621	Animal Science 801A
Exploring Civilizations 621	Agriscience 801A
Family Life 621	Creative Multimedia 801A
Foundations of Mathematics 12 621A	Communications 801A
French 611 or 621	Dramatic Arts 801A
French Immersion Language Arts 621	Hospitality and Tourism 801A
Global Issues 621	Styles of Popular Music 801A
Housing 621A	